

Mint Auction Of Sold-Out Sets At ANA Convention Indicates Strong Values In Secondary Market

August 12, 1997

Washington, D.C. — The auction of four recently sold-out sets by the U.S. Mint during the American Numismatic Association’s convention in New York City indicates a strong demand for new 1997 limited edition products in the secondary market. The sets were sold by silent auction on August 1 during the ANA’s World’s Fair of Money.
